ORDER ENJOINING PROVIDERS
FROM ASSERTING CLAIMS AGAINST ENROLLEES

This matter came on to be heard upon the Motion of Paula A. Flowers, Liquidator of Universal Care of Tennessee (UCT), to enjoin health care Providers that contracted with UCT or have filed a claim with the Liquidator of UCT from asserting claims against UCT's Enrollees, and it appearing to the Court from the Memorandum filed by the Liquidator and the Affidavit of Paul Eggers that health care Providers are statutorily and contractually prohibited from seeking payment from Enrollees beyond Enrollees' cost sharing responsibilities, and that collection efforts by health care Providers are interfering with the Liquidator and her responsibilities, and no opposition having been filed to the Motion;

It is therefore ORDERED that health care Providers that contracted with UCT or filed a claim with the Liquidator for UCT and collection agencies acting on their behalf are hereby enjoined from seeking payment from UCT Enrollees for services provided to the Enrollees. Failure to comply with this Order may result in a finding of contempt of Court.
